

Reviewing criteria for publishing in Piotrków Historical Journal

1. Preliminary evaluation of the submitted materials is conducted by the Editorial Board of Piotrków Historical Journal.
2. Qualified materials are submitted for reviewing by appropriate experts.
3. Reviewing is done according to the principle of double-blind review process.
4. The form of review is exclusively written and concludes with a clear statement on accepting the article for publication or rejecting it.
5. The principles of assessment and review form are made publicly accessible on the journal's website.
6. The editorial board does not disclose the names of reviewers for individual articles.
7. Once per year the editorial board publishes the list of reviewers on the website.